

Hair loss from any cause is deeply traumatising for many people. Coping with hair loss is made even more challenging by confusing terminology, misleading information and a general lack of empathy towards its psychological impact.

Get Ahead of Hair Loss (GAoHL) was created to address the need for an annual, public educational event on common causes of hair loss and raise awareness of the impact it can have on people and their quality of life.

Put simply, hair loss matters so it matters that we talk about it.

GAoHL will be your opportunity to get all the latest news and views on hair loss and its treatments directly from the UK's leading experts in hair science, dermatology, trichology, hairdressing, cosmetic camouflage and psychology.
